

Workplace Safety for Teens Answer Key

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Watch the video on Workplace Safety: Safety at Work – Tips on Workplace Safety and complete the questions.

1. How often do workplace accidents happen?
Every day. Over 3 million injured, with about 5,000 deaths.
2. Why are younger workers more likely to injured on the job?
They have less experience and training
They are less likely to speak up and ask questions
They often do jobs that are more dangerous.
3. What are the most common types of workplace accidents?
Slips, trips and falls
4. What should be your first priority at work?
Pay attention to what you are doing and follow the safety rules
5. What are the most common causes of accidents?
Laziness, taking shortcuts, distracted or tired, drug and alcohol, overconfidence, ignoring safety rules and procedures.
6. Why does the video say you should be careful about being lazy or taking shortcuts at work?
Lack of awareness and often ignoring safety procedures
7. After viewing this video, what do you think the role of the government should be in workplace safety?
Answers will vary.