

WHEN

What

Who: Identify the people who were the key parties involved in the event.

Where: Note the nation (and state, if known) where the event occurred.

Why: In a few words tell why the event was important.

Comments that offer more details concerning the event—such as

- How the invention, innovation or infrastructure changed the movement of people and goods
- The economic incentives associated with the event.
- How the event connects with other notable advancements in technology and transportation